RE: Rejection of Documents Titled "Petitioner Complaint, 28
U.S.C. § 620"

Dear Mr. Simms:

The Clerk's Office is in receipt of the above referenced papers (enclosed and returned herewith). Please be advised that it is unclear how you wish these papers to be treated. Please clarify your intentions and return for filing if necessary.

Papers presented for filing must reflect a civil or criminal action number of a pending matter before the Court, or be a new case (to be assigned a case number). The papers you have filed do not contain a civil or criminal action number. Although your papers mention one pending case presently before the Court, Simms v. Freeman et. al., Civ. A. No. 04-1205-SLR, it is unclear as to whether you wish these papers to be filed in your existing case or whether you wish to initiate a new case.

Nothing contained in this letter is intended to express an opinion as to the merits of any claims which you may be alleging.

Sincerely,

/mlg

PETER T. DALLEO
CLERK
